

Reviews and features from a few of my releases.

September 25, 2023 eclecticmusiclover.com "Dark Riders" "Six and a half minute long instrumental track with progressive elements, though Terry's twangy guitars lend a strong Western vibe to the proceedings. I love his guitar work, and the spooky organ adds some great texture to the track. A fun and clever video." This animated short has also been airing on TV on the east and west coasts of Canada.

April 22, 2022 EXCLAIM! My track, "Steen's Reverie" was selected and featured on Exclaim's "The Eh! List" on Spotify. It also received lots of airplay on JazzFM91 in Toronto.

October 16, 2019 FYI Music News (Kerry Doole)

"Colder temps are upon us, but if you need a warm and sunny vibe, check out "Rumjaro 360"...Built around trumpet, and guitar, the tune fuses rumba clave, jazz and rock elements, to pleasing effect."

October 25, 2019 Cashbox Canada (Lenny Stoute)

In reference to my track, "Rumjaro 360"..."Ottawa genre jumper composer Terry Gomes has a new instrumental single that references Latin jazz with trumpet and guitar in lead roles, just enough percussion and zero cowbell."

January 30, 2018 The Whole Note (David Olds) "The Tropical Dream"

"...lifted my spirits and kept me grooving through the bitterly cold days of January. I for one was happy to be on board with Gomes on this island cruise."

January 5, 2018 The Daily Vault (Jason Warburg) "The Tropical Dream"

"A full-album song cycle that seamlessly melds Latin and jazz influences with a balmy seashore vibe that is, in a word, delightful."
